

You Never Were Alone

Cloud Cult

I've spoke all of my speakings.
I've dreamed all of my dreamings
I've believed all there's to believe in.
Now all I am needing is...

When I've screamed all of my screamings
and given up all of my grievings.
I will still love you with all of my being.
Now all I am needing is faith in the Great Unknown.
You never were alone.
