

One Last Night

Clouseau

You were so right and I was wrong
And now I know where I belong
You'd had enough and I didn't see
How the darkness closed in on me
I want you back again
Wherever you are, whatever you do
You must decide, I will leave it up to you
I realize I don't have a clue
But I go on praying that my wish will come true
I want you back again

Give me one last night to love you
You and I alone, happy on our own
Give me one last night to love you
You and I alone, living on our own
You had high hopes, I had no time
So I never noticed when you cried
I realize how foolish I've been
Won't you forgive me and come back again
'cause I want you close to me

Lend me your voice, Lord, to pray and to plead
And if in the end you will go as you said
I'll be full of regrets and I'll never forget

You were so right and I was wrong
