

Straighter Line

Cock Robin

Who can say when things go wrong
Just rolling with the changes?
Time is short, the list is long
Of words that I have wasted (very short)

You see baby I
I see my soul reaching out
I hear your voice in the clouds
Is there no straighter line

I got my heart up in air
But I begin to wonder
Will you be here in time?

In time
Whooo
In time

How do I act differently
I thank you for asking
Stronger than I used to be
Or can you not imagine?

I see my soul reaching out

I hear your voice in the clouds

Is there no straighter line

A much straighter line
A place to jump in
I'm ready to fight

I see my soul reaching out
I hear your voice in the clouds
Is there no straighter line
I'm ready to win

I got my heart up in air
But I begin to wonder
Will you be here in time?

In time
Whooo
Will you be here

I see my soul
I see my soul keep reaching reaching reaching reaching
Out
Reaching reaching reaching out
