

I Will Be Gone

Cocoon

Oh I found, under a thousand dead bodies I found your armor
With the blade of my sword hum... stuck in your heart.

Oh if I, oh if I were to die would you say that we're tie ?
Oh come on. Tch tch come on.

Oh I could give you seas when you fight for lakes.
By the time you stand and walk again,
I will be gone, I will be gone, I will be gone.

Oh you gave, oh you gave me a map to find a way out,
And you gave me a mirror to see who I became.

Oh I could give you seas when you fight for lakes.
By the time you stand and walk again,
I will be gone, I will be gone, I will be gone.

Oh I could give you seas when you fight for lakes.
By the time you find out what it takes,
I will be gone, I will be gone, I will be gone,
I will be gone, I will be gone, I will be gone.
