

Monica

I guess you know this time you've gone too far
Trade your heart
What you're looking for don't need those scars
Out to get whatever you can see
How to get passed your security
I know just what you wanna be
Oh, Monica

Walk away

Maybe once you just might hear me say
What's yours today
Is all I ever wanted anyway
Take your time in choosing someone who's Gonna be told what they're gonna do
Take my last chance if you want me to
Oh, Monica

No more wasting my time

It'll work out just fine
Thought they'd come to an end
Gonna end up all mine
Bring your friends if you want to
'Cos I won't be telling no lies
There's no sense in wasting our celebration
Monica
