

A Decade in the Rain

coldrain

They said we were worthless
Simply useless
Nothing we do will make a dime
They said we were broken
Nobody's chosen
We're just wasting all our time

If it still feels like we're going up
Then I can't see why we'd ever stop

You will never stop us
From believing and conceding
Everything we hoped for
Isn't all gone
It's not over
We'll keep on singing

They say that we're done for
What if we want more?
Nothing they say will change our minds
They say that we're crazy
We don't need saving
'Cause there's so much more to find

If it still feels like we're going up
Then I can see why we'd ever stop

You will never stop us
From Believing and Conceding
Everything we hoped for
Isn't all gone
It's not over
We'll keep on singing

Don't hold your breath
'Cause we're going nowhere
Forever we're here to stay

Don't hold your breath
'cause we're going nowhere
Forever we're here to stay

You will never stop us
From believing and conceding
Everything we hoped for
Isn't all gone
It's not over
We'll keep in singing
We'll keep on screaming
We'll keep on screaming
We'll keep on screaming
