

Here we are
Slowly evolving under all these stars
Were we forsaken for the flaws that we hold
Or the one final hope?
Here we are, the answer or the sickness

Fate is an empty concept
Nothing is written in stone
Life is your own, build as you go
Perfect in creation, perfect in destruction
Perfect imperfection, why not be human?

Here we are
Slowly evolving under all these stars
Were we forsaken for the flaws that we hold
Or the one final hope?
Here we are, the answer or the sickness
The answer or the sickness

We long for heaven, creating our own hell
Under assumption God is gonna save us all
Lost in temptation, constantly wanting more
There's no redemption, God will never save our fall
To the hands of evil
Tell me the devil is real
Here in us all, this is not our fault
If we're fucking this up for real

Here we are
Slowly evolving under all these stars
Were we forsaken for the flaws that we hold
Or the one final hope?
Here we are, the answer or the sickness

Failing far from unity
Broken in disharmony
Choking on reality
Falling to pieces
Falling to pieces

Here we are
Slowly evolving under all these stars
Were we forsaken for the flaws that we hold
Or the one final hope?
Here we are, the answer or the sickness
