Why, Pt. 2

Collective Soul

In the air I'm tasting your perfection
Forgive me dear for my misdirection
As I crawl beneath this torture you adore
I fall face to face with my scars you've ignored

So tell me why it don't feel the same Tell me why I've got to feel this way Yeah you leave, you're gone And I'm left here with the blame So tell me why it don't feel the same

All my props I swear they were in order Even with the warnings of your thunder Now I pause to let my silence scream tonight While you roam like a serpent satellite

So tell me why it don't feel the same Tell me why I've got to feel this way Yeah you leave, you're gone And I'm left here with the blame So tell me why it don't feel the same

So tell me why it don't feel the same Tell me why I've got to feel this way Yeah you leave, you're gone And I'm left here with the blame So tell me why it don't feel the same
