

Waiting for My Time to Come

Colony House

Today
Is not my day
I don't have the cards to play

I've settled down
I've learned
Be patient now
Let the fire burn

I'm just waiting on the seasons to change
Waiting for the curtain to fall
I could lose my cool
Like a restless fool
But I'm waiting for my time to come

I've tried
I've failed
I thought I gave my all
Now it's hard to tell

Is this the end
Of this dream I lost
Or just an introduction
To how much it may cost

I'm just waiting on the seasons to change
Waiting for the curtain to fall
I could lose my cool
Like a restless fool
But I'm waiting for my time to come

Yes, I'm waiting for my time to come
I'm still waiting for my time to come

It seems so complicated
It feels like hope has faded
When I know
It's just the way that we grow
I cannot control, no

I'll wait here when my light is low
I can give a little time for this dream to grow
So I'll wait here when my light is low

I'm just waiting on the seasons to change
Waiting for the curtain to fall
I could lose my cool
Like a restless fool
But I'm waiting for my time to come

Yes, I'm waiting for my time to come
I'm still waiting
For my time to come
