

My Temple of Pride

Communic

In the burning fire I see hope
Like when a moth is drawn to a flame
Fooled by the moon, revealing hopes way
Believe or burn in the eternal flame
Like they burned witches on the stake
For evil sins to be cleansed away
Who's to decide what man can be
What matter is now and how you act
Make your life a temple of honor

Don't seek for revenge!

Here comes the flood
Rolling in over the land
I've never been the one
To be played by greedy games
If an angel of death rode in over the shore
I'll stand my ground
You can't tear my temple of pride

And when the truth will come for a day
Drifting into eternal sleep
What life devours, will stain forever
Here comes the flood, teach your kids to swim
Against the stream, resistance of hate
Shall rise again from the steepest deep

Don't seek for remorse!

Here comes the flood
Rolling in over the land
I've never been the one
To be played by greedy games
If an angel of death rode in over the shore
I'll stand my ground
You can't tear my temple of pride

In the burning fire
I see hope
Like a moth drawn to a flame
Fooled by the moon, revealing hopes way
Believe or burn in the eternal flame
Like drowning witches in the lake
For evil sins to be washed away
Here comes the flood
Here comes the night of doom
Fooled by the moon, revealing hopes way
Believe or burn in the eternal flame
Like burning witches on the stake

And when the truth will come for a day
Drifting into eternal sleep
What life devours, will stain forever
Here comes the flood
Here comes the flood
Here comes the flood

And when the truth will come for a day
Drifting into eternal sleep
What life devours, will stain forever
Here comes the flood

Here comes the flood
Rolling in over the land
I've never been the one
To be played by greedy games
If an angel of death rode in over the shore
I'll stand my ground
You can't tear my temple of pride

Here comes the flood
Rolling in over the land
I've never been the one
To be played by greedy games
When the angel of death
Will ride in over the shore
Rest assured, I will fight
You can't kill this pride inside

Don't seek for revenge!
