I Can Do Anything

Concrete Blonde

Once upon a time there was a little girl who wondered "Where am I? How did I get here? who am I?"
And looked around with frightened eyes
And saw the world around her
And she saw from all her fright
That there was nothing more to life than hurting
And she cried and she said
"Maybe if I break out if I want out – if I can I'll find a place where I can be a little more of me..there is a place in here somewhere I don't know, I'd never see her
But I think that I may find her
And if I do I will be kind to her."

Heaven looked down on you and took your hand
And showed you everything you ever needed to know
But did not understand it

Angels came down and taught you how to see
To see past the pain
To the beauty in everything
You did not know the reason

Okay all I do is follow me and just believe
In everything will make some sense
And I may find some evidence
Of something somewhere
That'll be the thing
That's it
That's where I fit
She didn't
But here we go she said and hit the road with a vengence

Every stop on every train in every city looked te same
It didn't matter where she was
She wasn't there she thought
Because there's still a piece I can't fit in
I still don't know where I begin
And all the friends and all the faces
All became the same place.

She said
I
I can do anything
I can do anything
I can do anything
Oh, I..
I can do anything
I can do anything
I can do anything

They say a lot of things they said
You will be lied to, be mislead
Your heart will tell you what to do
Your heart will never lie to you
The secrets to unfold they said
Somewhere saving till your older
That's the master plan

So stick it out you'll find out what it's all about

And then the little girl who wondered who she was and how she got there Stepped into the light and knew everything was alright she knew everything w as alright, she knew everything was alright, she knew everything was alright
, she knew everything was alright

I...
I can do anything
I can do anything
I can do anything
Oh, I...
I can do anything
I can do anything
I can do anything
