Bad Girl

Conway Twitty

She's not a bad girl, she's just a sad girl
Please don't blame her for what she's done to me

I know it doesn't look too good for her
And I suppose she's done the things you say
And I guess it's true, I tried more than I should for her
But it's not her fault that she turned out that way

She's not a bad girl, she's just a sad girl
Please don't blame her for what she's done to me

Once, she was the kind of girl you'd have her be
But I was foolish then and didn't care
The first of us to ever slip around was me
And to place the blame on her just isn't fair

She's not a bad girl, she's just a sad girl
Please don't blame her for what she's done to me
