

Go Woman Go

Conway Twitty

Go woman go
Go woman go
There you stand to
Tellin' me you're gettin' tired of me.

You're sayin' that I've changed up
Not the way I used to be
Well, there's some things I wanna say
I think you ought to know
And then I think I'm gonna let you
Go woman go.

I stood by and watched you
As you tore my honor down
I even bought the clothes you wore
To go out on the town.

I thought you'd have your fling
And settle down but now I know
That all you ever wanted
Was to go woman go.

Now there you stand to
Tellin' me you're walkin' out the door
You're sayin' that you've had it
That you can't stand me no more.

You're thinkin' that I'll take you back
The way I did before
But not this time I've set your free
To go woman go.

Woman, go woman go.
Woman, go woman go...
