

She's Got A Single Thing In Mind

Conway Twitty

She can't find the words to break it to me cause she always was the gentle kind she's hopin' I'll hear it from a friend somewhere she's hopin' I'll read between the lines but it comes as no surprise cause she told me with her eyes so watch her untie the tie that binds

She's already gone except in body it's just a matter now, of time well I should have seen the storm clouds gatherin but he who won't look is just as blind so there's only me to blame when my woman dropped my name
so watch her untie the tie that binds
