

Sleep

Copeland

Am I sleeping with my eyes white
Am I alone
Am I staring into bright lights
Have I gone home
I must be dreaming when I'm sitting here
With someone else's clothes
Am I sleeping with my eyes white
Won't you let me know

Will I wake to find you waiting by my bedside
Will I wake to find you waiting by my side
Will I wake to find you waiting by my bedside
Will I wake to find you waiting by my side

Ooooo...

Am I sleeping with my eyes white
Am I alone
Am I following the lines on
The faces that are shown
I wanna see your hair line and cheek bones, your red lips, your cell phone
Would you let me know

Will I wake to find you waiting by my bedside
Will I wake to find you waiting by my side
Will I wake to find you waiting by my bedside
Will I wake to find you waiting by my side

Ooooo...

Will I wake to find you waiting by my bedside
Will I wake to find you waiting by my side
Will I wake to find you waiting by my bedside
Will I wake to find you waiting by my side

Ooooo...

Ahhh...
