Waltz on Water

Copeland

Step lightly we might sink in City life, my suburban love I've been blind and numb Wondering where all my fire's gone Where my fire's gone But I can't slow my thinking A blur of streetlights Through my tears they're beautiful I might crash my car Just to feel something pull my world apart Pull my world apart Ooh-ooh, ooh We're waltzing on The water now Ooh-ooh, ooh I'm drowning here on solid ground Ooh-ooh, ooh We're waltzing on The water now Ooh-ooh, ooh We're fumbling on our common ground (Oh-oh-oh, oh-oh) We're waltzing on The water now Ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh, ooh I'm drowning here on solid ground (Oh-oh-oh, oh-oh) Ooh-ooh, ooh We're waltzing on The water now (Oh-oh-oh, oh-oh) Ooh-ooh, ooh We're fumbling on our common ground I'll step lightly lest I grow tired Of the search for the cure For apathy, was it her? But by the time she returned I was fast asleep, come lay with me Come and lay with me 'Cause I can't slow my dreaming Ooh-ooh, ooh We're waltzing on The water now Ooh-ooh, ooh I'm drowning here on solid ground Ooh-ooh, ooh We're waltzing on The water now Ooh-ooh, ooh We're fumbling on our common ground

We're waltzing on) (Waltzing on The water now The water now The water now) I'm drowning here on solid ground We're waltzing on The water now Ooh-ooh, ooh
