

You & I

Corey Hart

Halloween night, tonight
Monsters climb my wall
Chimera in sight, no fright
Revelations after all
I've been blessed in a shining world
So beautiful, so bountiful
I have tasted the sweetest wine
Like honey from your lips
I do believe...

You wanna love, you wanna see
I want same rivers too
You wanna breathe, you wanna feel
I want same oceans too
You wanna fly, you wanna give
I want you and I

You read Siddhartha by Hesse
I confess, I fell asleep in central park
Enlighten me my friend there's no end
That could ever keep us apart
Driven to tears evolution cries
Butterflies always change
Enchanted by your world tonight
Touch me while I dream
I do believe

You wanna love, you wanna see
I want same rivers too
You wanna breathe, you wanna feel
I want same oceans too
You wanna fly, you wanna give
I want you and I

In a poetic state of grace
I will write to you
This is no ordinary light
This is our life

You wanna love, you wanna see
I want same rivers too
You wanna breathe, you wanna feel
I want same oceans too
You wanna fly, you wanna give
I want...
You wanna love
You wanna live I want...you and I
