

White Faces In The Black Hills

Corporate Avenger

See, I care about you guys
I respect you because you were created by God
And your mom, and your parents
The reason why I'm here
Is so that you can teach your children

Some say there's a residue
Of the things we do in the places we do them
Now we're living at the scene of the crime
We bought a one way ticket to the front of the line

'Cause I show you kindness doesn't mean I'm weak because I'm not going to play your game

Four fathers from another place Holy Mountain has a new face

I wouldn't say respect, because I told them you know respect and fear are two separate things and I'm not afraid of you but I have respect for you

White Faces in the Black Hills
Now we've got a new deal with no choice, you'll take it
And you know we stole it 'Cause we never sold it

They gave you that knowledge to do this so, it's not really your theory, it came from the spirits, and if you believe that way then you understand what I'm talking about

Send theirs prayers to the one in the sky
But they only seem to die

But your children are innocent they don't know any better, so whatever it is that you're doing you're passing that stuff on to your children and I want to protect your children

Now we're living at the scene of the crime
We bought a one-way ticket to the front of the line
And you know we stole it, 'cause we never sold it Yeah, they never sold it, yeah, we never sold it

Anger circles growing Anger circles breathing Anger circles closing in Cause histories not changing

And this pain is not erasing Like the stone that it's carved in Mountain eyes that sold the lies Like an evil mans design Now the trees hold all the memories

In these places that remind

White Faces in the Black Hills
Now we've got a new deal with no choice, you'll take it
Now we're living at the scene of the crime
We bought a one way ticket to the front of the line

Rushmore, no more
Deny our history
Rushmore, no more
It's there for all to see

Rushmore, no more
Deny our history
Rushmore, no more

And the day you realize the gift that you have the more powerful you'll be so the choice is up to you are you going to trust that gift and believe in it or are you just going to go ahead and say you're like everybody else
