

A Mile In My Shoes

Cosmic Gate

You will know it in time
Feel what is there
After so many days, your clock ticks twelve
It's OK

Fight your need
To make it clear to me
Walk a mile in my shoes
That need will disappear

Set you free

Look at you through my eyes
And see what I see
Maybe you're agonized
Too numb to take in

Set u free!

Set u free!

In search of release
In touch with yourself
After so many nights
So lost in your lies
It's OK
