

Should've Known

Cosmic Gate

I am censored by my fear
I am hollowed, when you're near
Can you feel the passion deep in here?
Do you understand the tears?
What's the price I'll have to pay
Should I take the offer you make
What's the least I'll have to say
Eye to eye we meet and then you take
I should've known, you would leave me this way
I should've known, you'd have to leave
You could've shown, some dignity
You could have shown me what to believe
I should have known
You could have shown
I am censored by my fear
I am hollowed, when you're near
Can you feel the passion deep in here?
Do you understand the tears?
I should have known
You could have shown
