

My Father's House

Cowboy Junkies

Last night I dreamed that I was a child
Out where the pines grow wild and tall
I was trying to make it home through the forest before the darkness falls

I heard the wind rustling through the trees and ghostly voices rose from the fields I ran with my heart pounding down that broken path with The Devil snappin' at my heels

I broke through the trees and there in the night
My father's house stood shining hard and bright
The branches and brambles tore my clothes and scratched my arms but I ran till I fell, shaking in his arms

I awoke and I imagined the hard things that pulled us apart will never again, sir, tear us from each other's hearts I got dressed and to that house I did ride
From out on the road, I could see it's windows shining in light

I walked up the steps and stood on the porch
A woman I didn't recognize came and spoke to me through a chain ed door
I told her my story and who I'd come for She said ''I'm sorry, son, but no one by that name lives here a nymore''

My father's house shines hard and bright
It stands like a beacon calling me in the night Calling and calling, so cold and alone Shining `cross this dark highway where our sins lie unatoned
