Wrong Piano

Cowboy Junkies

Oberheim, Yamaha, Steinway and the lot I must of played the wrong piano 'Cause it left me with I don't know what

So don't talk to me about mistakes
Yes, we all simply have got to take precautions
I musta played the wrong piano
'Cause now I just, I just feel nauseous

Some sexual turned in some biblical And then became a game of just trivial pursuit I used to gnaw on every word But now I don't, what's the use?

Rupert Murdock and Larry Flint
Bob Guccione and the U.S. Mint
I took out the wrong subscription
And I don't know what I'm gonna end up spending

Oberheim, Yamaha, Steinway and the lot
