

Tomorrow

Crack the Sky

I'm always searching for a reason
Searching for a reason why
Why I ever thought I'd leave you
Who am I to change your life

Now that you're gone
I just can't feel without you
Is it too soon, too soon to cry

Don't you wait until tomorrow
Don't you wait, don't you wait until our love is over
Don't you wait until tomorrow
Don't you wait until it's too late for love

Now I'm lying here without you
I can't get you off my mind
Life without you is so empty
How could I be so unkind

Take my hand
Is it too late for sorry?
Why can't it be
Just you and me?

Don't you wait until tomorrow
Don't you wait, don't you wait until our love is over
Don't you wait until tomorrow
Don't you wait until it's too late for love
