

Wild One

Cracker

You're a wild one
Well I was once like you
They couldn't tame you
Kicked you out of the zoo

Drank all of that soda pop
Red candy on your chin
I gave you something to slow you down
Just sped you up instead

You're a wild one
A wild one
You're a wild one
A wild one

You're a wild one
Were you raised by wolves?
Learned their dark secrets
Under the light of the moon?

That's when the bum matron comes
To lock you in your chair
So scream along at the top of your lungs
Shout and shake your hair

Cause you're a wild one
A wild one
You're a wild one
A wild one
You're a wild one
A wild one
You're a wild one
A wild one

You're a wild one
You're a wild one
You're a wild one
You're a wild one
You're a wild one
You're a wild one

You're a wild one
You're a wild one
You're a wild one
You're a wild one
You're a wild one
You're a wild one
You're a wild one
You're a wild one
You're a wild one
