

Better with You

Craig David

So many nights when, so many times when
I wouldn't come home but you would keep calling
I keep on lying, keep on denying Couldn't decide if I wanted to dive in

'Cause there ain't a minute that I don't regret it
Baby, I'm better with you
Girl, with you I'm better
And you know it too, yeah
Girl, with you I'm stronger
See no one else in the room
I'm better with you
I'm better, girl with you
I'm better with you
I'm better, girl with you

We could be talking, we could be laughing
Not used to you here with me, sitting in silence
I miss the shouting, I miss the fighting
Just give me a chance, girl, don't throw the towel in

'Cause there ain't a minute that I don't regret it
'Cause baby, I'm better with you
Girl, with you I'm better
Yeah, and you know it too, yeah
Girl, with you I'm stronger
See no one else in the room
I'm better with you
I'm better, girl with you
I'm better with you
I'm better, girl with you

You got me now, I love without the limits
So now you know

I'm better with you
Girl, with you I'm better, yeah
And you know it too, yeah
Girl, with you I'm stronger
See no one else in the room
I'm better with you
I'm better, girl with you
I'm better with you
I'm better, girl with you
