The wind whispers my name Rain drenches my skin The chill suffocates my gasp Darkness conceals my scars Endless Love - Endless Fall - Endless Hate Endless Call Endless Love - Endless Fall - Endless Hate Endless Call Fear prevents lowly acts Worriment diminishes secrets proplems In danger of falling into a trap The game to slake yourself Endless Love - Endless Fall - Endless Hate Endless Call Let me be your everything - when I'm looking to you Let me see you when I'm king - when you are my something Thoughts circle and fade away The heavens soaked in bloodred The stars so far and distant The power to relinquish Endless Love - Endless Fall - Endless Hate Endless Call Let me be your everything - when I'm looking to you Let me see you when I'm king- when you are my something Endless Love - Endless Fall - Endless Hate Endless Call Endless Love - Endless Fall - Endless Hate Endless Call Skin ripened by many days Lies give away hidden feats The torso abused by many melees The birth of a new game Let me be your everything - when I'm looking to you Let me see you when I'm king - when you are my something Endless Love - Endless Fall - Endless Hate
