

Eternal World

Crimson Glory

Down through the valley of shadows we go
Into the canyon of moonlight below
Stairs of stone descending
Down where the magic river's bending

Down the river we go To the sea of gold
(Where?) things are not as they seem (Why?) you are not as you were

Behold eternal world
Where time has no meaning
Reality is dreaming

Feel your flesh is melting
Feel your spirit twisting
Feel it ripping at your mind

There's no time for praying
Feel your soul is pleading
Welcome to eternal world

Eternal world
Eternal world
Eternal world
Eternal world
