

Lady of Winter

Crimson Glory

Her wraith rides the crystal sky
Of changing colors
The glowing clouds are moving through
The winter night
Snow is falling silver shining
Through the shadows deep blue dreaming
Eyes of diamond shine
Lady of winter, turning to rain
White world of wonder, fading away

Bright beams of violent light
Break the silence
Melting colors crushed
beneath the waves
Of rolling flames
Seasons turning, burning burning
Lady of winter, song in the wind
Melody whispers, seasons will change

Lady of winter, turning to rain
White world of wonder, fading away

Lady of winter, song in the wind
Melody whispers, seasons will change
