

Where Dragons Rule

Crimson Glory

The dragons rise from the sea of flames
Through the night you can hear them marching
Breathing fire, wings of steel
By the thousands they take to the sky
Shadows us all

In a world

Where dragons rule
Where dragons rule

All across the sky they soar
Burning trails into the night
Lazer eyes gleaming death - seek and destroy
Like shooting stars they fall from the sky
Death from above

In a world between myth and strange reality
In a world where dragons rule

Mission: kill
We kill for the dragon - we have no reason

Mission: kill
We will die for the dragon - is there a reason?

March!

Mission: kill
We kill for the dragon
Where dragons rule
Where dragons rule
Where dragons rule

Mission: kill
