

The Sun Is Gonna Rise Again

Cris Cab

Sun is gonna rise again
Sun is gonna rise again

No certainty no history, you've been here before.
There's happiness and misery, there's martyrs and war.
Like all your insecurities are coming to show, tell me how you gonna beat it

How do you feel about, watching the sun come out, alright.
You're working and you're hurting 'cause they're pushing you down.
The darkness gonna turn into the light.

[Chorus:]

I know that sometimes, the clouds are falling on your head, oh
I know that sometimes, you're feeling like the rain won't end.
The sun is gonna rise again
The sun is gonna rise again
So live and love tonight my friend.
The sun is gonna rise again, ooh

You know, there's one life, so live it to the fullest in the moonlight.
I feel good, whenever you shine, that's when everything is alright.
You got me asking asking, what's your passion passion, tell me what's your great escape, ooh
You know you're smashing smashing, when you're laughing laughing, so show 'em there's a better way.

[Chorus:]

I know that sometimes, the clouds are falling on your head, oh
I know that sometimes, you're feeling like the rain won't end.
The sun is gonna rise again
The sun is gonna rise again
So live and love tonight my friend.
The sun is gonna rise again, ooh

There's no time for worry, no time for sorrow.
(No time for sorrow yeah)
So let's take this night right into tomorrow, ooh.

Sun is gonna rise again...
The sun is gonna rise!
Sun is gonna rise again...
Yeah, ooh!

[Chorus:]

I know that sometimes, the clouds are falling on your head, oh
I know that sometimes, you're feeling like the rain won't end.
The sun is gonna rise again
The sun is gonna rise again
So live and love tonight my friend.
The sun is gonna rise again, ooh

Sun is gonna rise again
The sun is gonna rise again!
So live and love tonight my friend.
Sun is gonna rise again
