So much confusion in this life I've been living It makes me wonder what I'm searching for Reflections of my past present and future Things that always seem to haunt my soul

Born and raised in the slums of the world One side of life is all I've ever known The hard core truth it's a struggle for life yeah That's the only thing I've ever been shown

Gotta find the key to free my mind Could it set me free?
Is it so hard to know
You can look but will you find

Oh my god
I just can't lose control
Deception of the blind
I try so hard to find the answers
But I know that it's in my heart
Now I know that I shall come to see the truth
As I drift into my dreams

Got to make the changes
Out of darkness into light
Cut these ropes that bind us
Hope the truth can free us from the pain

I try so hard
To find the answer
But I know that they're in my heart

We've got to make the changes First we have to look within We've got to make the changes It's a place we must begin

The changes must start in my heart To find the answers
