

Pretty Lady

Cross Canadian Ragweed

Hey pretty lady in the picture with the patent leather high heels on You've been in my heart and on my mind like you've never known
I don't know where you come from
But you hit me like an atom bomb
Pretty lady in the picture with the patent leather high heels on

Hey pretty lady on the poster with the dagger running down her neck
You've got my money, my attention and my respect
Nobody knows what you went through
You just did what you had to do
Pretty lady on the poster with the dagger running down her neck

Hey pretty lady with the long gray hair in the limousine
You're gonna live forever on the cover and the pages of the magazines
Raven hair and milky skin
You didn't leave this world in sin
Pretty lady in the back of a long black limousine
