Are you ready?

Here we go
Who buried the rockstars?
Did everybody crawl back in their holes?
They're used to selling out arenas
Now they're back in the club
To afraid to keep up with the beat of the drum
Tell me something, how you feeling now?
You gotta show us what you're all about 10 years now, they buried the rockstars
10 years now, we'll bring 'em out

This is our sound, our weapon of choice
This is our sound, our weapon of choice
This is our sound, our weapon of choice
Are you ready?

Where are the rockstars? Why'd they go away?
We're gonna dig 'em out
Give 'em back their weapon of choice
Where are the rockstars? They can't fade away
Oh, everybody's poppin like a Justin B

Don't stop playing
Don't stop playing
This is the sound of a rockstar steady
