

Gambit With Gaia

Cruadalach

I am, I am the sea
You throw plastic garbage straight into me
I am, I am the fire
You throw to me tires to make yourself warmer

All people wasting and polluting Earth
My mother Nature is calling me back!

Come to me, to meet your fears
To feel your depths, to restore your mind

I am, I am the Earth
Try to dig deeper and you will be dead
I am, I am the air
Keep polluting me and I'll choke you there
I am, I am the river
You use me for your waste and your ships delivered
I am, I am the Sun
I'm warming you up for all you have done

All people wasting and polluting Earth
My mother Nature is calling me back!

Come to me, to meet your fears
to feel your depths, to restore your mind
I'm still waiting for understanding
To teach your mind to find your deepest side

I can hear her calling for help
I can feel her taking me back
Just stop!
She is the one who needs respect!
She gave us life, we have to pay back!
If we screw her we even screw us!
Give her some reason to regain the trust!
