

Godwall Chant

Cruadalach

Walls don't cry
Yet, I try
To break their relief
And see, what hides behind

Bones rattling in the chant
Of gods who can't be there
When most needed to bear
My brain so heavy

Trying to hide
I'm crawling on the ground to find
Some will to fight
The demons striking from behind

Walls don't cry
Don't deny
My promises and Smile kindly unkind

Crushing the bricks I smile
Crackling filling the air
Don't want to become prey
So sacrificing

Trying to hide
and crawling on the ground you find
Some will to fight
The demons striking from behind

Walls don't cry
Still we try
To know where we are aiming
In need of hope to find
