

Promises

Crystal Bowersox

Lovely lay me down
Live it all unspoken
What I am to you... you to me

Today we'll come around
When no promises are broken
Every kept word
We'll set it free

To tell our story
Hummmmm

Don't asked me when Don't ask me how
You were just my friend and then you were my everything
Tell me dear, why is it now
I finally hear what my heart's been whispering

Oh Lovely lay me down
Live it all unspoken
What I am to you... you to me

Today we'll come around
When no promises are broken
Every kept word
We'll set it free

To tell our story

10 years ago when you're crossing a road
You were miles away on a path I wasn't taken
If we have non encountered a second chance
Or any other cirscuntance
You're the Choice I've been making
Ahmm know...

But I've dream, Babe... with a sweet slow dance with you
While we dance around the truth
Hummm

Lovely lay me down
Live it all unspoken
What I am to you... you to me
Oh, lovely lay me down
My waving arms are open
Holding out for you
What could be, yeah

I know the day could come around
When no promises are broken
Every kept word
We'll set it free

To tell our story
My lovely
