

Alone

Crystal Tears

I wanna touch you
i thought we were under control i wanna hold you and ask you why things went so wrong so many thoughts are in my mind i thought you would be by my side we were together we were one just face the truth see what you've done

just like before
betrayed and alone
the same mistakes the same old words haunted by thoughts of fear, guilt and love just leave me be, leave me alone

i want some answers
i wanna know who is to blame i want your answers am i the one again to blame?

i dedicate these bitter lines to those who laughed to those who cried i wanna scream, i wanna scream my name the only way to ease my pain

just like before...

solo

no i don't think i am to blame no i'm not!

chorus:
just like before...
