

Comfortably Superficial

Cyclone Temple

Eighty-six the weak shit
We break the backs of the so-called hip
Button down your ego trip
'Cause you're tryin' too hard to stay in step

Jock the tip of those who move and shake
On a pedestal put those who reek of fake

Never walk in another man's shoes
You may not always win but you'll never lose
One man One mind One voice is all I am
I'll be myself, think for myself 'cause this is who I am

Always one to follow no one
Always one to never bend
Set your clock by what's hot and what's not
Just like your shallow friends

Jock the tip of those who move and shake
On a pedestal put those who reek of fake

Never walk in another man's shoes
You may not always win but you'll never lose
One man One mind One voice is all I am
I'll be myself, think for myself 'cause this is who I am

Comfortably superficial
Comfortably superficial
Comfortably...
