

The Beer Liberation Army

D.O.A.

The Beer Liberation Army don't care what's wrong or right
We'll break into a brewery and grab all the beer in sight

Well, it's late on a Friday night
And we've drank everything in sight
Got to find some more swill
Ain't got time for a drunken fight

The liquor stores are all closed
And we're banned from all the bars
It's time for a brewery raid
And some more battle scars

The Beer Liberation Army don't care what's wrong or right
We'll break into a brewery and grab all the beer in sight
(2x)

We're back again on a Saturday night
Take a look for security guards
He's probably drunk, it's all right
Crawl under the fence, I can't see no guard

Sneak up to the loading dock
Carry back as much as you can
Don't drop the beer, you'll wake the guard
Go back and fill up, fill up the van

The Beer Liberation Army don't care what's wrong or right
We'll break into a brewery and grab all the beer in sight
(2x)

Sac le bleu, there's the cops
Come on now, they're right on our ass
Better drink the evidence
I see handcuffs and fucking broken glass

Drink that swill
Grab that beer
Go back for more
Yea, yea, yeah

The Beer Liberation Army don't care what's wrong or right
We'll break into a brewery and grab all the beer in sight
(4x)
And grab all the beer in sight

The Beer Liberation Army don't care what's wrong or right
We'll break into a brewery and grab all the beer in sight
