

Don't bother me
I ain't got time
For your misery
It's not that I'm too busy

It's just that I'm waiting for the
I'm waiting for the world
To find somebody else
To deal with all the scum

I'm doing fine
In my green chair
Watching Rush and drinking a beer
What's that he just said something funny

He's waiting for the
He's waiting for the world
To find somebody else
To deal with all the scum

What ever happened to the way it was
What ever happened to my way
Don't make a sound
Someone's at the door

They're probably pushing
Freedom of whatever it is today
Be quiet and hope they go away
We're waiting for the world

To find somebody else
To deal with all the scum
