

The Outer Voids

Dakrua

come with me
through infinity
wearing a charm
made of bones
come here to stare
beyond all the human veils
where the nightfall waits
in a jaded trance

[Chorus]
nothing more than silence?
nothing less than soul search?

and hear my words to feel what I believe
what I've learned
from our history
come here to stare
beyond all the sunlit webs
where the morning waits
in a crimson dance
lying paralysed as I wonder lying mesmerised as I tremble

[Chorus]

...from inner thoughts to outer voids...
