

And Now That I'm In Your Shadow

Damien Jurado

I would rather hide behind you
Or stand in your eclipse
The sun, it does not move me like it used to
And neither do you

And Greenland I am with you
I was once unwanted
In the front seats all with strangers
I too was the Earth's ceiling
I lost all feeling

And now I'm in your shadow
I'm motionless
I am black

I'll be a crash landing who can change the landscape talking
And when I begin to stutter the land will be shaking
And God will be clapping

And now I'm in your shadow
I'm motionless
I am black

And now I'm in your shadow
I'm motionless
And I am black
