

Wedding Cake

Damien Jurado

You told all your friends
"He's someone I'll regret"
He's out there setting fires
To the demons in his head

Once you called it perfect love
You now call it accident
Do you sit with your photo books
Wondering where it went?

It was clearly never meant to be

You told all your friends
"He's someone I'll forget"
How do you erase a ghost
Who sleeps inside your bed?

Throw away your wedding rings
Give away the gown
Say goodbye to the accident
Who only brought you down

It was clearly never meant to be

You told all your friends
"He's someone I'll regret"
He's out there setting fires
To the demons in his head

Once you called it 'perfect love'
You now call it 'accident'
Do you sit with your photo books
Wondering where he went?

It was clearly never meant to be
No, it was clearly never meant to be
