

So Easy to Need

Dan Seals

We both knew it was the best thing to do
And we both said we're just using our heads
But there's no doubt
This is one thing that just won't work out
We both agreed that it's best we're through
But I just caught myself wanting you

I guess getting over you is getting to me
How can one so hard to love be so easy to need?
With you or without you, there's no relief
You're so hard to love, but so easy to need

These second thoughts
Oh, they must be the cost of goodbye
And I'm paying the price tonight
Either way that I turn just don't seem right
You don't make it very easy for me
Living with you or your memory

I guess getting over you is getting to me
How can one so hard to love be so easy to need?
With you or without you, there's no relief
You're so hard to love, but so easy to need

I guess I better get a hold of my heart
Fall back in your arms before I fall apart

I guess that getting over you is getting to me
How can one so hard to love be so easy to need?
With you or without you, there's no relief
You're so hard to love, but so easy to need
You're so hard to love, but so easy

Hard to love, easy to need
Hard to love, easy to need
Getting over you is getting to me
You're so hard to love, easy to need
You don't love to make it so easy for me
You're so hard to love, easy to need
And I'm payin' the price, I will never be free
You're so hard to love, easy to need
Woe, woe, woe, woe, woe is me
You're so hard to love, easy to need
