

My Secret

Danger Danger

When I was young I'd sit up in my room
And listen to my radio
In every song was wiping tears for you
I wonder where you are
The high five tunes were glowing
Like the lamplights of the room inside my stereo

And I wonder if you think about me now
Are you somewhere in the lost and found?

I used to think I could catch a falling star
And put it in my pocket
Just a teenage plan on taking on the world
And come to rescue you
But somewhere down that hallway took an exit
And my inner sense got lost

And I wonder if you think about me now
Are you somewhere in the lost and found?

Don't keep me waiting, for you
Don't keep me waiting... For you
For you

And whose are where you sleep?
Dream of me
Heaven have to wait
For you, for me
Ohhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh
For you...

When I was young I'd sit up in my room
And listen to my radio...
