

monkey middle with a fiddle
in a real tight ragtime band cause a blaze of fame and fortune heard so loud across the land and those little people who buy those records sit lonely in their homes with funny faces falling into the great unknown they got little polka-dot undies and you know they have their fun they got matchign ties and curtains and they get their washign done but come evening comes afeeling when they lay their burdens down when they put that record on the house is jumpin with excitement ' everyones acting out of character but everthing goes back to normal a hafl an hour later and everyone acts like nothing happend as that record goes back int he sleeve thats one house guest that'll never leave
monkey middle with a fiddle
in a real tight ragtime band
cause a blaze of fame and fortune
heard so loud across the land
and those little people who buy those records
sit lonely in their homes with
funny faces falling into the great unknown