

Paris Calling

Daniel Lavoie

There's an ocean out there
A freezin' rain
While the world keeps turnin' tonight
There's a jazz station playin'
Out of Amsterdam
Sendin' waves across the sky

There a gaslight burnin'
Outside my door
A window let in the stars
There's a street below that never sleeps
A cafe to bring in the dawn

It's Paris calling
Is anyone there
Won't somebody pick up the phone
Can somebody hear
It's Paris calling
Does anyone care
Is somebody listenin'
Is anyone there?

There's a ten o'clock flight leaving Orly tonight
I'm hanging right on the edge
City of lovers
We'll kiss it goodbye
I'm lost in this big empty bed

It's Paris calling
Is anyone there
Won't somebody pick up the phone
Can somebody hear
It's Paris calling
Does anyone care
Is somebody listenin'
Is anyone there?
