

Electric Heart

Daniel Schuhmacher

I wanna hear you scream your lungs out and in my electric heart I feel this countdown
All the molecules flying around us

Open your eyes
Feel the wonders
This rhythm settles in your ear now and there's no chance to take a bow

Now read my lips
and free yourself from the subjection
It's time to illuminate the darkness
an electric heart is sparkling

I hear the tick tick tock
of my electric heart
It goes Boom Boom Boom Boom Boom
I hear the tick tick tock
of my electric heart
It goes Boom Boom Boom Boom Boom

Break your habits
Feel your freedom
We are unique
We are humans

Now read my lips
and free yourself from the subjection
It's time to illuminate the darkness
an electric heart is sparkling

of my electric heart
It goes Boom Boom Boom Boom Boom
I hear the tick tick tock
of my electric heart
It goes Boom Boom Boom Boom Boom
This bomb is going to explode
It's like a system overload
I hear the tick tick tock
of my electric heart
It goes Boom Boom Boom Boom Boom

The writings on the wall are hieroglyphics
We will decipher it don't fall for old tricks I'm like a snake hyponotizing and then my poison is rising into your head
