

Propaganda

Daniel Schuhmacher

Let's find an enemy
With words that are so evil
And the only thing that i can say
It's all about the excitement
There are games that we're stuck in Still pretending, we will win
And you can start these wars with propaganda.

We're living in a cage
But we're lions under the shell

You shot me down
Propaganda
I'm naked now
You sold me out
Propaganda
I love this pressure
You knocked me down
Propaganda
I love this feeling
an energy
Propaganda
I can't describe

Let's find the sense in life
An addiction to be fullfilled
Rattle the bitches out there
But don't kill them
A littlr bit psycho inside is nothing you should hide
As long as you're not
A new jack the ripper

We're living in the dark
Erasing the last spark in our heart

You shot me down
Propaganda
I'm naked now
You sold me out
Propaganda
I love this pressure
You knocked me down
Propaganda
I love this feeling
an energy
Propaganda
I can't describe

Propaganda
Propaganda

We're living for a fight
We're living for the conflict in our lives
We're diving into a new war
Don't take these games too serious
