

Love Kept Us Foolin' Around

Darlene Love

La da da

Heaven sing me a song, I don't care if it carries on

There's a place inside of my heart where nothing once belonged

Well come to the sky of that big jet plane to O-ri

Standing right at the gate in the shirt you left behind

Love keeps you falling, leaving you warning, with never enough

Love is some kind of monster, wanting to conquer, right where it hurts

Love kept us foolin' around

Love kept us foolin' around

Love kept us foolin' around

Let's have breakfast in bed, reminisce the days we met

Watching the dimming of lights, never getting dressed

Love keeps you falling, leaving you warning, with never enough

Love is some kind of monster, wanting to conquer, right where it hurts

Love kept us foolin' around

Love kept us foolin' around

Love

We can be inside this hotel room, between the sheets and the scars

You know sometimes the choice between right and wrong depends on how desperate you are

And I know that

Love kept us foolin' around

Love kept us foolin' around

Love

Love kept us foolin' around

Love kept us foolin' around

Love kept us foolin' around

Love kept us foolin' around
